

GSDL Complaints & Disciplinary Summary

The GSD League of Great Britain (GSDL) is committed to fairness, transparency, and safeguarding across all its activities. If you have concerns about conduct or governance, here's what you need to know:

Complaints

- Must be submitted in writing within 1 month of the incident
- Include details, evidence, and a £50 fee (refunded if upheld)
- Anonymous complaints are recorded but cannot lead to action
- Investigated by a confidential Panel appointed by the Council
- Outcomes may include warnings, suspension, or expulsion
- Appeals must be made within 14 days

Disciplinary Matters

- Triggered by breaches of conduct, safeguarding, or League rules
- Reviewed by a Panel selected by the Council
- Sanctions range from informal guidance to expulsion
- Appeals follow the same 14-day process

All proceedings are confidential and handled with integrity. For full details, please refer to the formal procedure or contact the GSDL Council.
